We are happy to report that this office is now fully staffed at the legislative analyst position that has responsibility for national security, trade, and international affairs issues. We are continuing a job-sharing arrangement for this position as Annette Rooney is joining forces with Sue Thau to serve as the legislative analyst team for these programs. We view this job-sharing team as a continuation of the very successful and rewarding effort that was put forth by Sue Thau and Tracey Lawler.

Annette will be in the office Monday through Wednesday noon, and Sue, Wednesday noon through Friday. The names of both legislative analysts will appear on Legislative Referral Memoranda covering the above-noted issues, as Annette and Sue will be jointly responsible for all aspects of the job, regardless of who is in the office on any given day. In addition, we are continuing established procedures to ensure continuity and avoid duplication of effort on your part.

We are committed to making job-sharing a continued success, both from your point of view as well as ours. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to call.
